You Don't Know where This Heart's Been,
I can tell by the way you're holding me you want more than just one night, and God knows I feel the same way too, as I lay here by your side, but I don't wanna lead you on and make promises that I can't keep, so if you knew what was best for you you'd get up and leave.

cause you don't know where this heart's been
and the trouble that its seen all that it's been through and what you'll get into if you fall in love with me it's had more than it share of hard times,
and may never love again,
I know you wanna stay
but you better walk away,
cause you don't know where this heart's been.

Someone long before you left me here all alone and still in love and I swore I'd never get that close again, once was enough, you say you'll erase the pain and put this life of mine back on track, well you don't know what you're saying its not as easy as that.

it's had more than it share of hard times,
and may never love again,
I know you wanna stay
but you better walk away,
cause you don't know where this heart's been.
oh I'd love for you to stay,
but you better walk away,
