He's got a real long beard that's white as snow
He's got icicle fingers and Popsicle toes
He's got chestnuts roasting on an open fire

He's got you, scootin' down the hill on a worn out tire
He's got sleigh bells ringing out into the night
He's got everybody feeling alright

When old man winter comes to town
He's got a special way of dropping in
And spreading cheer around
You know Christmas is around the bend
And he won't let you down
When old man winter comes to town

He's got the whole world, sleeping beneath a blanket of white
He's got everything shining on a full moon night
He's got kids of all ages, clowning around

Building snow forts and knocking them down
He's got frost on the windows, ice on the stairs
Smoke from the chimney and pine in the air

When old man winter comes to town
He's got a special way of dropping in
And spreading cheer around
You know Christmas is around the bend
And he won't let you down
When old man winter comes to town

He knows frosty the snowman
And all the reindeer
And everybody's happy when he's been here

'Cause he talks to Santa and all of the elves
And he took one day of Christmas
And he turned it into twelve

When old man winter comes to town
He's got a special way of dropping in
And spreading cheer around

You know Christmas is around the bend
And he won't let you down
When old man winter comes to town
