She don't know that I exist
But I got her at the top of my list
Why does she want to look at other guys
When she's the apple of my eye
Now my tongue is tied and my heart's unglued
And my mind's gone numb thinkin about her too
My knees get to shakin each time she's near me
When the moment's right
I whisper in her ear

Pretty please with sugar on top
Pretty please I'd even cross my heart
Pretty please Would, would'cha go
Would'cha go out with me
If I said
Pretty please

I'd hand her the stars and moon above (moon above)
I'd write her name in the sky with love (with love)

I'd give her anything in this whole wide world
If she would only be my girl

Pretty please with sugar on top
Pretty please I'd even cross my heart
Pretty Please

Would, would'cha go
Would'cha go out with me
If I said
Pretty please
Pretty please.

Would'cha be my go-go girl...
If I said... pretty please.
