Open in your eyes
Hear all your voices inside my head
It's no surprise
I'm filtering through all the things you said

I can't believe you're here again you keep pretending there's no end

Chorus:
If I'm such a loser
Than why you hangin''round me?
You're always trying to change me
You always say 'if only'
And I kept listening to all the things you said
You're so miserable
and You're so typical

Taking your cute
From a magazine that talks to you
Filling your head
Without an original point of view

[yeah]
Oh lookie here she comes again
Runaway train coming 'round the bend
If I'm such a loser
Then why you hangin' 'round me?
You're always trying to change me
You always say 'if only'
If I kept listening to all the things you said
You're so miserable
I'm invincible
this love's predictable
You're so typical

Bridge:
It's always the same
You can't find sunshine in pouring rain day by day
finding someone else to blame

[oh]

I can't believe that you're here again
you keep pretending there's no end [yeah]

If I'm such a loser
Then why you hangin' 'round me?
You're always trying to change me
You always say 'if only'
If I kept listening to all the things you said
I'd be you instead

If I'm such a loser
Then why you hangin' 'round me?
You're always trying to change me
You always say 'if only'
If I kept listening to all the things you said

You're so miserable
and I'm invincible
this love's predictable
inconceivable unbelievable undeniable uncontrollable
You're so typical
