Feel me in the corner
Beside your mouth
Feel me in the inside of the
Faintest trace of sound

It's fire underwater
Breathing while you drown
Feel me in the saturation
When the sun burns out

I am the one inside you
And I am the one
(Inside your veins)
I am the one inside you
Over and over I'm here again

Far beyond the bruising
Sometimes underneath

Feel me in the aftermath when
You learn the world has teeth

I am the one inside you
And I am the one
(Inside your veins)
I am the one inside you
Over and over I'm here again

There is so much more to this than
Phantom limbs for amputees
Here, dissolving through the trauma
This is where you'll feel the breath of me
