Everday's a new beginning
Filled with tales untold
Through a tainted window
We all watch our lives unfold
And so it goes on and on, on and on
And so it goes

Some doors happen to be open
While others still stay closed
Why we try to plan ahead
Nobody truly knows what tomorrow holds
Oooo
That's how the story goes
Oh yeah

I know life may not always go
The way you planned it
You can't stand it
Your left alone
and abandoned
Oooo
I know the one who's in control
How he made you, won't leave you
Forsake you or deceive you
Yea ... a...

Unexpected turns
The lead us off the beaten path
We end up in the desert
Wondering how long will we last
Before we crash and burn
And all our hopes turn into fears

There's beauty in the brokenness
For inside if we find
Pain produces character
Like grapes squeezed into wine
And over time
We'll see how divinely we were designed
Oh

I know life may not always go

The way you planned it
You can't stand it
Your left alone
and abandoned
Oooo
I know the one who's in control
How he made you, won't leave you
Forsake you or deceive you
Yea ... a...

Life's surprises
Can paralyze us
And leaves us by the wayside
Dying to find a reason
To keep on breathing
When all hope is gone
To keep on believing
To keep on believing

I know life may not always go
Oooo
and abandoned
Oooo
I know the one who's in control
How he made you, won't leave you
Forsake you or deceive you
He won't leave you
Forsake you or deceive you
