if it were a thousand miles to heaven would i run there to you or lace my daisy chains much longer cos i cant let go yeah

if eternity was on the floor of the ocean blue yeah would i take my friends way down under to show them truth

but i sometimes dont act like i should but im forgiven now hey hey like i never thought i could

CHORUS

and i stay and the day slips away the day slips away and i go and i take life so slow i take it so slow when theres so far to go if i heard i need to die a martyr to bring you glory would i let life fo or hold it closer like it belonged to me
