Amazing by Alabaster Box
There we go again
It's crazy and it seems unbelievable
So I pray cause I wanted you to see
So I prayed for you to see
What your ment to see
I know you will
And it seems to be the same
But I've noticed that you've changed
And your about to hear me say
That I love you

Cause I've been watching you for years now
I've been waiting
And now I'm holding back the tears
Your so amazing now you've come

A father to a friend
I know its true you watched
As the world fell down
So did I
And I wanted you to know
That I held you as you wanted my son to die
But he's alive and seems to be the same
But I've noticed that you've changed
And your about to hear me say
That I love you

Cause I've been watching you for years now
I've been waiting
And now I'm holding back the tears
Your so amazing now you've come

Cause I've been watching you for years now
I've been waiting
And now I'm holding back the tears
Your so amazing now you've come
