"Awaken"

Visit "Awaken" on MotoLyrics.com today i saw a lady who had a baby she was fourteen little boy who had such joy yet his sorrow lies in the dark of night we search perfection daily and model tv with a lovely lady with pretty coloured shoes and pretty coloured hair yet forever hollow stare

CHORUS

so awaken your eyes awaken your soul we are in need of the truth to be told open your heart open your mind we are in need of the truth to find hey hey yeah hey hey yeah open your eyes see the real thing i saw a family with broken hearts yet stubborn pride no time to say he's sorry just making money while she still cries whats this world when importance lies on having things instead of love inside everybody knows but does anybody care that we're still so unaware

take a look take a look see his promise after the rain colourful beautiful a perfectionate display of his love
