i sing this song for You cause searching is all we do trying to find that one piece of happiness there's blood on my hands you see but He came to set me free Jesus you make the sun shine in darkness and when i feel i've failed again Your mercy makes me breathe so take me in Your arms of love today

cause i need Your love

but i know i'm passing through seeking to follow You then when i stand in glory i'll see You and i will stand up for You even when others hate You and then i'll feel Your love again cause when i feel i've failed again Your mercy makes me breathe

yeah
mmm-mmm
