Visit "A New Generation" on MotoLyrics.com

You're the voice of a new generation
And you're coming out so strong
It's your choice can you feel the sensation
You're going one by one

The battle of life, in every sight
Is won you have friends forever
You better believe it, cause can achieve it
As long you are two togheter

Make every step, and take what you get
But don't forget the chance of giving
Yes, you are a young gun, a glorious someone
Let's go and change the world

You're the voice of a new generation
And you're coming out so strong
It's your choice can you feel the sensation
You're going one by one

So let's make history
Together and forever
Let's make history
I feel it's now or never

This song is for you, and it is so true
Just keep it in your heart forever
In every nation, the new generation
Has come to change the world

You're the voice of a new generation
And you're coming out so strong
It's your choice can you feel the sensation
You're going one by one

So let's make history
Together and forever
Let's make history
I feel it's now or never
