Winter has come
Farewell to the sun
It's getting colder every single day
You are not here
Can't stand you're not hear
I'll wait for you forever and I pray
My fantasy
Makes me believe that you're with me

I have winter in my heart
Cause I miss you more than words can say
When nights are long and lonely without you
I have winter in my heart
Count the hours every single day
That lone some time is too sad to be true
Got winter in my heart

Snow falling down
And you're not around
I'm all alone in that white wonder land
Taking a walk
There's no one to talk
We used to be together hand in hand
My fantasy
Makes me believe that you're with me

I have winter in my heart
Cause I miss you more than words can say
When nights are long and lonely without you
I have winter in my heart
Count the hours every single day
That lone some time is too sad to be true
Got winter in my heart

Hm...
O...

I have winter in my heart
Cause I miss you more than words can say
When nights are long and lonely without you
I have winter in my heart
Count the hours every single day

That lonesome time is too sad to be true
Winter in my heart
