Emily
you know you stole my man
Emily
i thought you were my friend Emily, Emily
the scars on your face do not compare, to the ones left on my heart

Emily
don't know how you stand to smile around me oh Emily you stole everything from me just cause of destiny i don't want to hear you say my name any more Emily

Emily
i hope that you and Sam are happy but that don't mean i am
Emily
don't invite me to the wedding unless you, really want to see me cry
Emily
