you are a morning glow, through years of darkness how could you ever know what fire sparked this?

delicate hands can touch me where no one else can reach a heart that's cloaked in unrequited love is breached you're all that i know, how to live for now you are my savior, please let me savor your beauty, beauty sleep Nessie, sleep Nessie you show me pictures of the things that you hold dear i'm what you're thinking of, through cherub fingers it is clear

your eyes, they see straight through me past all the fallen lies i'm not the man i claim to be, but you are wise

you're all that i know, how to live for now
you are my savior, please
sleep Nessie
