Jacob please don't go
I love you, I do
I'd follow your tracks through the snow just to find you
It's true
Cause I am Switzerland
The neutral starts here
I'm gray matter
Between a field of red
and a river of sun
I am content to be in the middle of my two loves

Edward can't you see
I'd die without you here
I'd cease to exist
So never let me go
Promise oh dear
I know you'll always be here
Cause I am Switzerland
The neutral starts here
I'm gray matter
Between a field of red
And a river of sun
I am content to be in the middle of my two loves

Why can't I have both?
Why do I have to choose?
They're both a part of me
Now they're both singing the blues
Cause I am Switzerland
The neutral starts here
I'm gray matter
Between a field of red
And a river of sun
I am content to be in the middle of my two loves
