Bella
I know that you
Love us two
Both the same
And Bella
It's just not safe
For you to act this way
It's irresponsible
You smell like werewolf
You smell like werewolf
You smell like werewolf
Tonight

Bella
I don't understand
How you could love that vamp
Over me
And Bella
He's just the boy that cried wolf
Don't let him engulf
Your sense of fire
You smell like vampire
You smell like vampire
You smell like vampire
Tonight

He doesn't understand waht it's like to miss you every day of his life
Hedoesn't understand the need to kiss you in the moonlight
He even let you jump
How could he be so reckless?
He'd sooner take your life
How could he be so selfish?
You smell like vampwolf
You smell like vampwolf
You smell like vampwolf
Tonight
