Oops their goes my heart, life is so bizarre
How can we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
Fade away, away, fade away
Fade away

Director please, say the cut
I can't find the scene in the script that I got
There seems to have been a mix up
Cause our story was suppose to be uncut
You told me a lie, don't you bother
Half of my mind you helped me wire
How could something so real just suddenly

Fade away, away, fade away
How could we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
We were supposed to hit a walk off but we lost
Oops their goes my heart, life is so bizarre
How can we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
Fade away. Fade away.

Dear doctor please, hurry up
I'm having a relapse, my heart's about to stop
It's so hard to breathe, I thought I was tough
But my whole body's still addicted to your love

Caught in a hole but I am trying Nothing I do seems to be helping
How could something so real just suddenly

Fade away, away, fade away
How could we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
We were supposed to hit a walk off but we lost
Oops their goes my heart, life is so bizarre
Baby, how can we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
Fade away, oh no

I never thought love would be, be so short

In-supply, we thought we were unbreakable
Never meant to say goodbye
Finally I found someone, possibly meant for me
We thought we were inseparable
Still today I wonder why

Fade away, away, fade away
How could we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
We were supposed to hit a walk off but we lost
Oops their goes my heart, life is so bizarre
Baby, how can we stand and watch the love just
Fade away, away, fade away
Fade away
