

Blackened "Embrace The Pain"

Visit "Embrace The Pain" on MotoLyrics.com

Who knows tomorrows face what lies beyond which way the road will bend
I am longing for the end

I feel like I am falling
I cannot find my home seconds turn to hours
In these days since you are gone

A dream of you passed by Embrace the pain so long denied

Refrain: Imprisoned by my selfish pride
I tried in vain to let you go
The sorrow that I hold inside
Like a silent tumor grows
When my time has come to die
I know that we will meet again but at least I have to try to live my life again

I feel like I am falling
I cannot find my home
seconds turn to hours
In these days since you are gone

In these days I learned to cry In these hours pass me by
In every second that I die
I long to say goodbye
