

Blackened "Insanity Reigns"

Visit "Insanity Reigns" on MotoLyrics.com

don't you feel him deep inside sometimes seeing through his eyes he's the blackness you're the light he's the silence if you cry when the black rose inside unfolds your innerself does disappear he won't catch you if you fall you can't cry without a tear

Refrain:

(don't you hear my cries) (don't you see my lies) god knows how long I've tried to brake these chains, my mind's so sick and tired of playing jester games,
misery likes company - a wise man had once sad, finally insanity reigns in my head!

neither black nor white see myself losing control death can't live when all life dies he's the shadow of my soul
