Revolving 'round this satillite
The mothership abandoned me
With no wavelengh to reconnect
I've always been the alien

We move right through our lives
And experience it like ghosts

Where do we belong
Is it up so high
Trying to hold on
Then we wonder why

Filter thru the orbital
To make my eyes reflect the sun
'Cause I don't want to be like you
The distance keeps us searching for...

Where do we belong
Is it up so high
Trying to hold on
Then we wonder why

What have we begun
What have we become
Underneath the sun
