Oh, its flowing through me combusting with contempt Rationality abandoning chemically lead astray Steeping outside the confines of the circle bane of society become I'm about to cross the line and take a life, nothing can stop me now
Murderous functioning, an animal within me speaks Nothing but blood could satisfy these carnal needs

I am your master superior I reign poised just above you on this death distorted chain
The need to kill transcends temptation
I'm sick and in need of blood Withdrawals haunt me, taunt me, sickly baiting my deeds
Can never be undone

I am your shepherd cloaked in obscenity heed these sickening words
I worship only what you bleed I am your master Superior I reign poised above you on this death distorted chain
