To the world you're just one person
But you mean the world to me
What the world doesn't see is that you and me are meant to be It's 11:11, I have nothing to wish for.
'Cause you're everything I've wanted and more You're everything I want, you're everything I need You're everything I love, you're everything I bleed

I could make a wish upon a shooting star and I wouldn't get a girl, as beautiful as you are
As beautiful as you are, baby, as beautiful as you are

Not even a fairytale could properly describe How much I want you, how much I need you in my life Intuition is the definition, of how I fell for you

I could make a wish upon a shooting star
and I wouldn't get a girl, as beautiful as you are

What do I wish for at 11:11?
