I gave it all, all to you
I can't believe I thought those things you said to me were true

Tell me, did you see me in his eyes?
Tell me, did his kiss taste like your demise?

Sweetheart you're a sweet heartbreaker
A loveless lover, a hopeless faker
If I give you a second chance
Will you do it right, will you make it last?

What we had is slowly fading, like a burning cigarette
I hope you had a lovely evening
Is there anything that you regret?

Tell me, did you see me in his eyes?
Tell me, did his kiss taste like your demise?

Sweetheart you're a sweet heartbreaker
A loveless lover, a hopeless faker
If I give you a second chance
Will you do it right, will you make it last?

Tell me, what did I do wrong?
I love you all along
Am I just wasting my time writing you this stupid song?
Will there be another page in the fairytale that we once had?
Am I still your pirate? Are you still my princess?
Will there be another chapter to add?

Sweetheart you're a sweet heartbreaker... x4
