Sarah Says

Sarah says she has been dreaming
About a boy that she knows
But shes too shy to tell me who he is Sarah says she is trying to find a way to let him know
The way she feels and how nice she really is IÂ've been told shes no average kind of girl
Hey I donÂ't know it I can fit into her world

Chorus:

(and I go)

nananana I think I am falling in love with Sarah

(and I go)

nananana I think I am just decided shes my kind of girl

Sarah says sheÂ'll be thinking about the things that I said about the way she looks at me and smiles
Sarah says sheÂ'll be looking at opportunities for us
Getting together this weekend and spend a little time
IÂ've been told shes no average kind of girl
And I donÂ't know it I can fit into her world

Chorus

Bridge

Hey donÂ't care how long it takes Cause there might just come a day
When Sarah will give her heart to me
Although my foolish heart might brake ItÂ's a chnce IÂ'd rather take Than living my life without her
