Still think of you

It's time to move on, that's what they say
Gotta find a new life, and go your own way
Just have some fun, it will be alright
But they don't know
I've been crying all night

Bridge:

Even after all this time
I still don't know
Was it right to break your heart

Chorus:

Still think of you
With every little thing I do
When I meet someone new
I wonder do you miss me too

I just woke up and the pain is there
The one that keeps telling me that I still care
Come back, come back, come back and let's fight no more
Come back and make love like we did once before

Bridge:

Even after all this time
I still don't know
Was it right to break your heart
And let you go

Chorus

Even after all this time
I still feel the pain
It keeps on driving me insane
Oh, come back, come back,
Come back, come back, why don't you come back
Even after all this time I still don't know

Chorus
