I thank you Lord for giving me
My good health and my family
But when I look, into the sky
I know its GOC who'll have my eye

I used to always fix my hair
How I looked, yes I would care
But ever since I saw your eyes
You taught me wonders; what's inside

God of Chaos
Why do you torment me?
I try to find an answer,
But it won't come easily
Sometimes you're my only hope
And sometimes I just cry
But, God of Chaos, I love you tonight

I hope you will remember
How we talked, say last December
How I made you laugh and smile
And you're smile.....it's just so beautiful

We were friends, we still are now
But I want more, please tell me how
We can play and joke and talk
And still it's never "Jenn and GOC"

God of Chaos
Why do you torment me?
I try to find an answer
But it won't come easily
Sometimes you're my only hope
And sometimes I just cry
But, God of Chaos, I love you tonight

Sometimes its hard to look at you
Your beauty reflects kindness too
Remember when we danced that time?
Remember your body close to mine?

Recall those days we'd run outside
I'd pull a croif, then we'd collide
My shoe came off, please lend a hand
On both our iPods, the same bands

God of Chaos
Why do you torment me?
I try to find an answer
But it won't come easily
Sometimes you're my only hope
And sometimes I just cry
But, God of Chaos, I love you tonight
