Lose it all,
When I come,
You better hide, you better run

I feel down
When you cry
But I'm just another guy

In your eyes,
My face gleams
You take my pride, you steal my dreams

Lose it All
If I choose
To become something you can't lose

Lose it All (Lose it all) (Lose it all)
Lose it All (Lose it all) (Lose it all)

And maybe yet
Comes the day
When you'll wish you ran away

But right here
In my eyes
I Will cry and say goodbye

Confusion reigns
In my heart
But these feeling won't depart

Lose it all
As I die
And wish that you hadn't said good-bye.....

Lose it all.
