got a skeleton closet we've got a dreaded disease i been looking high and low for my skeleton key and they say that pride well it's is the chief of sins well i know all of his deputies i'm well acquainted with them

yes she walks on water yes yes she walks on sky yes yes she walks on roses yes yes she walks on by she got a brand new ache she got a brand new crutch got a brand new scar take a lifetime to cover it up and this ground is barren honey this place was dry that's a long long time ago 'til i looked in your eye everybody got a secret deep under the ground you can take it out once in a while when there's no one around you can grab for it all yeah with your list of demands or you can come as a small child yeah with your empty hands
