Witnesseth:

To All Men Be Known:

Of all the colours in the world I had to choose the one
with none

X Solo AR X

Friends and Foes, hear these words: "The reports of my death

are greatly exaggerated!"

In flesh and blood and soul and spirit I will live for evermore!

(and I will!)

Tried to open up my mind (and my heart), lock it away
and seal

it off for good

Yet before calling it an eveÂ...

There shallÂ... there shall be done one deed or two,
yeah! One colour: black, one calling X One calling: black! X One colour:

black, one calling X One calling: black (and shades of grey!) Of all the colours in the world, you know I had to choose the one

with none

X Solo AR X

Now we live the Age of Treason, When there's daggers in men's

smiles (goddamn backstabbers in disguise)

Serpent EyesÂ...And Viper's Tongue, It is time for revaluation (of all values)

One colour: black, one calling X One calling: black! X
One

colour: black, one calling X One calling: black (and shades of grey!) X
