(Jarva et al)

For so very long it has been so very, very cold
Right here where I am, For so far is the timeÂ...
When you came and brought peace to this chaos inside
You know I have felt you deep in my blood and in my veins
Yes, you. The most beautiful thing, that this ugly, dirty world had ever seen.
Well, I've seen. And I sing to thee:

And all the land, all the seas, All the landscape will freeze X
Say goodbye to the angels in your heart!
And all the woods and the beasts, all the life forms
seace being X When you cry winter winds sing straight to my heartÂ...

You, my light in the dusk, in the twilight fading time
You have been shining so dim Through the season all the howling and gashing of teeth (just like it says in the bible, or so I believe)

You, my light in the dead of the night
I pray to all gods just to be by your side
(and as it says in a great many songs)
Can't you see you are the air I breathe, You are the blood I bleedÂ...
Well, I bleed. And I sing to thee:

And all the land, all the seas, all the landscape will
freeze X
Say goodbye to the angels in your heart
And all the woods and the beasts, all the life forms
seace being X When you cry winter winds sing straight to my heartÂ...

X Solo AR X

And all the stars and the moo, And the great ol' one up high in the sky will die too
When you cry winter winds sing straight to my heartÂ...
No-no-no-no!Â... No-no-no-no!Â... No-no-no-no!Â... No-no-no-no!Â...
