A Fisherman Is Out At Sea
But There's No Fish In The Water
His Net Is Black As He Pulls It Free
A Shock's Awaiting Him
He Always Tried To Find A Good Place
He Knew The Fish Would Be There
Last Fish He Saw Had Death On Ist Face
A Fate He Soon Would Share

Another Man Was Spending His Life
Transporting Oil In Tankers
Then One Day, They Said To His Wife
We Must Give You Our Thanks
Your Husband Tried, He Tried The Best
To Save Our Precious Cargo
Our Ship Was Caught By A Gale From The West
It Sank Dragged Him Below

Another Death, Another Life Is Gone
The Ocean Now Is Turnin' Into An Oilpit
Another Ship, Another Load Is Gone
We Only Live As Long As It Takes Us To Spoil It
