People Filling Up The City Streets
Armed With Money And Determination
It's The Last Day Of A Busy Week
And The Start Of There Weekend Frustration

The heavy Smell Of City Life
Sticking To My Loungs
And I Know I've Gotta Get Away
Down To The Seafront, Or Beyond The Hills
To Breathe The Air I Need, Oh Yeah

Traffic Keeps Coming Into Town
And There's Nowhere Left To Park At All
But When The Weekend Comes Around
You Just Have To Pay The Town A Call

The heavy Smell Of City Life
Sticking To My Loungs
And I Know I've Gotta Get Away
Down To The Seafront, Or Beyond The Hills
To Breathe The Air I Need, I Need The Air, Oh Yeah

Beep Beep Beep
There's Thousands On The Street (and Now)
Hoot Hoot Hoot
We Have To Get There !
Let Us Through, It's The End Of The Week
Spend Our Money
We Don't Care No We Don't Care
