60 cycle crowds emitting mesmerizing sounds across the room she flares prolonging each and every stare please don't interfere her frequencies full blast I am losing atmosphere her frequency wont last (her frequency wont last)

helicopters falling every cities burning at 100 miles an hour ambulances chasing feel your chest racing when she stares when she stares dynamite kills in Hollywood thrills every face yields a permanent shield helicopters falling every cities burning when she flares does she flare

stop and take a second look around shocking currents shocking loud raining on your parading frown pouring on her jealous shell making sounds that flow and swell blasting hearts like shot gun shells her frequency wont last

helicopters falling every cities burning at 100 miles an hour ambulances chasing feel your chest racing when

60 cycle sounds let me be your admirer

on this line on this mine in her cries in her eyes I can hear sirens

on this page in this haze in this daze in this craze I can
hear sirens

hour ambulances chasing feel your chest racing when
falling every cities burning when she flares does she
flare
