"Molotov"

Had to slow the car down to siphon some more gas Filling up our bottles better get out of here fast Tonight the party celebrates not knowing all the while We'll burn their fucking world down, we'll do it with a smile
Stand up, fight hard, light the bomb you love
Stand up, fight hard, throw your Molotov

We're tired of having no say in this world where fascists rule
Now we will show you, got a Molotov or two We may not change the world and we may not know how
But we'll make our own stand you can bet that we know how
Stand up, fight hard, light the bomb you love
Stand up, fight hard, throw your Molotov
