vs. 1:

So round and round I go
Dancing with my soul
I'm anxious and afraid
Sifting pieces of the day
Shattered where they lay
I'm about to break

In this lonely place
I cry Your name

Chorus:

You are more real
Than the tears that are filling my eyes
Than the heartache I'm holding inside
You're my hope in the darkest of times
Like moon that illumines the night
In light of all I feel Jesus, You're more real

vs. 2:

Love covers all my fear
And I am resting here
Held in Your embrace

In only place
That I'm not afraid

Bridge:

And I'm running away to You
Running away to You
Running away from the darkness of night
And I'm holding to what is true
Holding to what is true
Running away to You into the light
