You're running head first into empty alleys dark and so mysterious
Careful or you'll lose yourself
I can see you holding on to anything familiar Maybe that's what's pulling you down, pulling you down

Cuz it's OK to be afraid
Just fix your eyes above
And it will be O, be O, be OK
It's OK, cuz you are safe
Don't lose your faith
And it will be O, be O, be OK

You test the waters scared you'll wake up drowning in the mess you've made
Take a second, catch your breath
I can see you struggling to break free from the uncertainty
But you don't always have to figure things out, figure things out

You've got to trust, God hears your cries
Don't, don't, don't you worry
Don't, don't, don't you worry
I know you're tired, keep holding on
Don't, don't, don't you worry
Don't, don't, don't you worry
