lay down

sinking

let it go

let us begin

you can push me backwards

I wont save your master

this is my decision

so brace yourself

never satisfied

there's no compromise

the hell inside we live this

we wont be denied

we wont ever die

the ties that bind wont end this

never compromise

we will never compromise

on course

break through (we'll break through) still alive (we're still alive)

so fuck you (so fuck you) can feel the pressure

is this pain or pleasure

this is my religion

so here we go

there's nothing we wont conquer

there's nothing we wont break

nothing you can take away

there's nothing we cant take

nothing standing in our way one, two, three, four you can push me backwards I wont save your master this is my decision so brace yourself never satisfied there's no compromise the hell inside we live this we wont be denied we wont ever die the ties that bind wont end this never satisfied there's no compromise the hell inside we live this never satisfied never compromise we will never compromise
