Tired of chasing - Happiness just runs away
Tired of waiting - all the life not meant for me
I am sinking - I am burning in this hell
Tired of filling - All these holes within myself

I feel the darkness and it leaves me cold
I feel like I don't belong here at all
At all
I don't belong here

My reflection - Out of focus, I can't see
No direction - I am blinded by disease
Something's changing
Something's growing near inside
I am shaking - Is all that's left to me is Changed

I feel the darkness and it leaves me cold
I feel like I don't belong here at all
I feel the darkness and it leaves me cold
I feel like I don't belong here at all
At all
I don't belong here, at all
I don't belong here, anymore

Â'Cause I died for you
Â'Cause I died for you
And I died for you
Would you cry for - For me?

Mangled my hopes and dreams of life (For me)
And would you even cry for me? (For me)

Mangled my hopes and dreams of life (For me)
And would you even cry for me?
