At school I never fitted in Just did not care when others did Did not want to belong without it I felt strong
I did not need confirmation

They said she's strange

But I'm just crazy and it's the best word that I know
Couldn't please me more than telling me
I'm crazy and I just scream it loud and proud
I'm crazy, crazy, crazy

Everytime when I meet faces unknown
I just wanna know all about them
Ask them about their lives, their fears, their fantasies and lies
A chat with me feels like interrogation

They say she's strange, she's different, she's nice in her own peculiar way

But I'm just crazy and it's the best word that I know
Couldn't please me more than telling me
I'm crazy and I just scream it loud and proud
I'm crazy, crazy, crazy
