"What's your age?", says the man in the suit Thinking he knows all, believes he's cool That's what he thinks A girl my age doesn't understand the world
At least that's what he thinks, I think

Oh I, I need to break free from all of these thoughts
inside

I have to stop the worries in my head, leave my doubts
all unsaid
And be who I wanna be No need to be insecure no more, I just gotta walk through that door
And wonder of free to be me

"She's so vain", is what she whispers to her friend When I pass her sitting at the bar
"Must think she's all that, cause she's a little famous probably thinks she's hot" She tells her friend, I think

Oh I, I need to break free from all of these thoughts
inside
I have to stop the worries in my head, leave my doubts
all unsaid
And be who I wanna be
No need to be insecure no more, I just gotta walk
through that door
And wonder of free to be me

Close my eyes and I hear those buzzing whispers surrounding Judging me, talking about me
I wanna be, totally free Free of guessing what they said or what they might think about me

Oh I, I need to break free from all of these thoughts

I have to stop the worries in my head, leave my doubts
all unsaid
And be who I wanna be
No need to be insecure no more, I just gotta walk
through that door
And wonder of free to be me
