"Everything Is Good"

Visit "Everything Is Good" on MotoLyrics.com

everything is great
everything is good
everything's alright it's all like it should be

everyone's invited
everyone but me everyone's afraid to say what everyone can see

i don't want to waste our time like that i don't want to pretend the friendship's fat everything perfect but the band no one here talks back no one here speaks out no one here thinks deep no one here keeps count

everything perfect but band and everything's ok and we can sit and smile plastic smiles from across the room

everything is good
we sit alone together
i wonder what i ever did to make you act so ignorant and if everything's true then why do you hate me
