I see you as I walk in the room
With your eyes on me as I walk through the door
Talk's going there and I'm going there
Your scent is so strong I swear I disappear
I feel like I'm on cloud 9
Your body is so fine I want you to be mine
With lips like mine, I'll give you a dime
You'll cry danger danger, I'll scream some more

Follow me
Back room
Baby it's a private show
Close the door, on the floor
Baby keep the lights off

I'm a love maker
Not a love faker
I'll win your heart
Baby come in the dark
Life is so sweet
When you've falling so high
Come with me and baby I'll be your star

Your so fine you got me hypnotized
The way you act towards me
You're such a mystery
You're on the floor you know I want some more
You've got that body body
Yea you're flawless for-sure
I feel you as you enter my room

Your smell is so toxic
You've got me to bloom
Your lips are so tasty
I want some more
I cry danger danger
I'll scream for more

Follow me
Back room
Baby it's a private show
Close the door, on the floor

Baby keep the lights off

I'm a love maker
Not a love faker
I'll win your heart
Baby come in the dark
Life is so sweet
When you've falling so high
Come come with me and I'll be your star

If you can only please me
Not make things uneasy
You and me can be breezy
Like the air we breathe

I'm a love maker
Not a love faker
I'll win your heart
Come come with me and I'll be your star

I'm a love maker (A love maker)
Not a love faker
I'll win your heart
