

Barb Roos

"Only Me"

Visit "Only Me" on MotoLyrics.com

They took a quiltless man
Pounded nails in His Hands
Shoved a crown of thorns in His head
Then they laughed as He bled

But He did it all for us out of His Amazing Love
And if it were only me, He would have went to Calvary

They sang "Hosanna to the King" as He rode by Then they stuck Him in the face and said "Prophecy"
Then they shoved a spear in His side

But He did it all for us, out of His Amazing Love
And if it were only me, He would have went to Calvary

Yes if it were only me, He would have went to Calvary Bearing all my sickness and shame, my heartaches and pain
Yes if it were only me, He would have went to Calvary
Bearing all my iniquities, if it were only me
Only me..... Only me

Visit Barb Roos page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.