seeing things from my eyes
they take me by surprise wondering how youve been bad shadows bringing me down
the one who wears the crown
i should have told u long ago

caught inside of your game feeling all my shame walking home from house to house (house to house) yea u all mess me up u tell me to shut up well see whos laughing in the end

(this song is short)
