Someday we'll reunite
I suppose in my own little way
I always thought we'd be together
I suppose I had know doubt that we
Would be for ever
So why is life so cruel
Why was I a fool
I should have known that life
Would turn around so fast
And leave me missing you
No one knows where tomorrow lies
I only wish I'd realized
I wish I'd made every minute with you last a lifetime

The stars the moon the sunrise
I shared with you when you where mine
Some how I know one day we'll re-unite
I can watch the wind blowing round
And I can watch the falling rain
I can feel the sun shining down
It's not the same
I only wanted you
So why is life so cruel
I should have known that life
Would turn around so fast
And leave me missing you..
No one knows where tomorrow lies
I only wish I'd realized
I wish I'd made every minute with you last a lifetime

The stars the moon the sunrise
I shared with you when you where mine
Some how I know one day we'll re-unite
