understands me even my babay neil come on i feel like leavin packin my sh.. i dont wanna look back knows what i go through but let me tell you one thing is true, i like my chickens on their rainbows as much as you i say we pay them mind to see them and be kind, no one looks at me any more but i look at them no one cares if i die but i'll be here to the end
