Hope you don't mind
If I just sit here a while
Well, I've been off the beaten track
For a long, long time

Don't know if I was misled
And just got lost
But I know nothing's ever
Never gonna be okay again, no how

'Cause everything is just closing in
Well, I don't know that I have one single friend
Not one single friend

My mom thinks I need religion
I think I need a shower and something to eat
Can I bum another cigarette?
And thanks for the listening to me

You know I don't like to steal
But I've got needs
And I know nothing's ever
Never gonna be okay again, no how

'Cause everything is just closing in
I don't know that I have one single friend
Not one single friend

Not one single friend
Not one single friend
Not one single friend
