

Brandon Paris Band

"Say Goodbye"

Visit "Say Goodbye" on MotoLyrics.com

There was a guy, that saw this girl so he looked the other way, just pretended he didn't see her. She seen him standing alone like a desert rose but he knows that she knows, she says "what's a guy like you doing in a place like this?" a place like this. he says "i'm just hangin around all by myself, and i'm doin' okay" but he's lost in...

the cold, the cold no where to go he was just an ordinary guy. She gave, she gave trying to save, just wanted someone to love her. How did she know he let her go? She never had the chance to say goodbye... Goodbye...

She reaches out, takes his hand thinks she has another chance to live happily ever after. She doesn't realize he never says goodbye as he tries, but he lies and she cries she says "why'd a guy like ever treat a girl this way?" He says "i'm not ready to be tied down now, still trying find myself" Yeah he's lost in...

the cold, the cold no where to go he was just an ordinary guy. She gave, she gave trying to save, just wanted someone to love her. How did she know he let her go? She never had the chance to say goodbye... Goodbye...

the cold, the cold no where to go he was just an ordinary guy. She gave, she gave trying to save, just wanted someone to love her...

the cold, the cold no where to go he was just an ordinary guy. She gave, she gave trying to save, just wanted someone to love her. How did she know he let her go? She never had the chance to say Goodbye... Goodbye... Goodbye... Goodbye...

Visit Brandon Paris Band page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.