I'm searching for a way to go - easy,
right from the start.
A way to understand her more - maybe,
straight from the heart.
I'm looking for an open door - cause I wanna leave this place.
Today I left my past behind - I know there's no disgreace.
I wanna stay by your side - all night long,
you're part of my story - and you can be what you wanna be.

Let us make the things we feel tonight - tonight,
tonight,
doesn't matter if it's wrong or right - wrong or right.

You've never been so close to me - tell me what's going on.
I feel your breath in front of me - it's crazy,
but I feel so alone.
I wanna stay by your side - all night long,
you're part of my story - and you can be what you
wanna be.

Let us make the things we feel tonight - tonight, tonight
doesn't matter if it's wrong or right - wrong or right.
Let us make the things we feel tonight - tonight, tonight
doesn't matter if it's dark or light - dark or light.

Let us make the things we feel tonight â€¦.
