You really wanna know but nothing works out.

You bitch
you moan you whine you scream and you shout

While then you're punching bag for way too long
When you see me smiling when it all goes wrong.
Go ahead now.

Chorus:
You can blame me when you feel that you wanna blame someone and you know that your gonna Blame me when you feel that you gotta blame someone so go ahead and come on

Theres always been a fight its a world against you While put my money on Well then you should too
You'll always need somebody to hold your hand
While we gone we'll winging you down
You can't

Chorus:
You can blame me when you feel that you wanna
blame someone and you know that your gonna
someone so go ahead and come on x2
You can blame me go ahead blame me x4

You can blame me when you feel that you wanna
blame someone and you know that your gonna Blame me when you feel that you gotta blame
someone so go ahead and come on x2
You can blame me go ahead blame me x2

You can blame me when you feel that you wanna
blame someone and you know that your gonna Blame me when you feel that you gotta blame

someone so go ahead and come on
